

INFO PACK ZAGREB

Annual E-NICHE meeting – Zagreb, Croatia

7th to the 9th of September 2026.

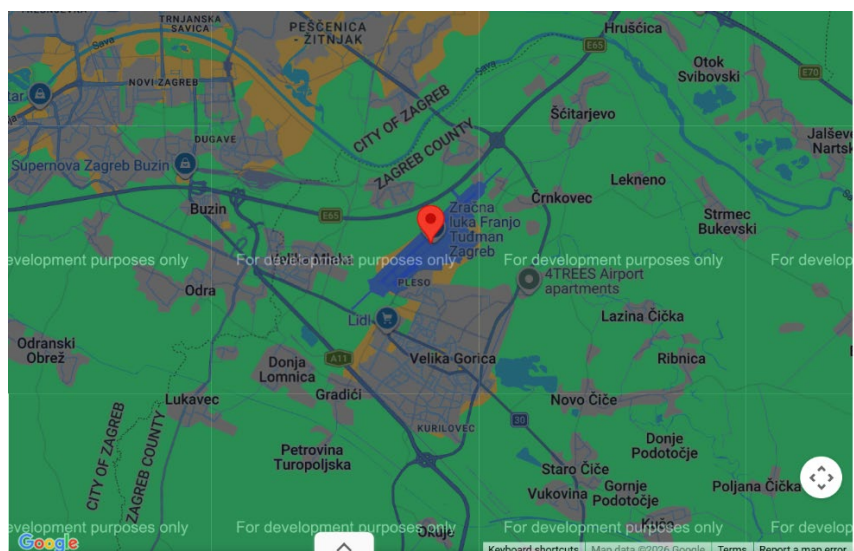

Zagreb

Zagreb is the vibrant capital of Croatia, blending Austro-Hungarian architecture with a relaxed Mediterranean spirit. The city offers historic Upper Town streets, lively cafés, green parks, and a rich cultural scene. Compact and walkable, Zagreb is known for its welcoming atmosphere, making it an ideal destination for academic and international events.

How to get to Zagreb

By airplane

Zagreb is served by Franjo Tuđman Airport, located about 15 km from the city center. Shuttle buses run every ~30 minutes to the main bus station (~30 min ride).

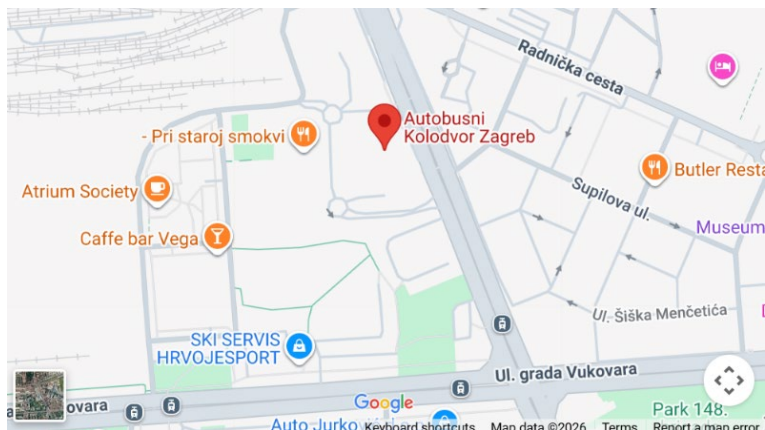

By car

Zagreb is well connected by highways from neighboring countries (Slovenia, Hungary, Austria, Serbia). Driving is convenient, with clear signage and modern roads.

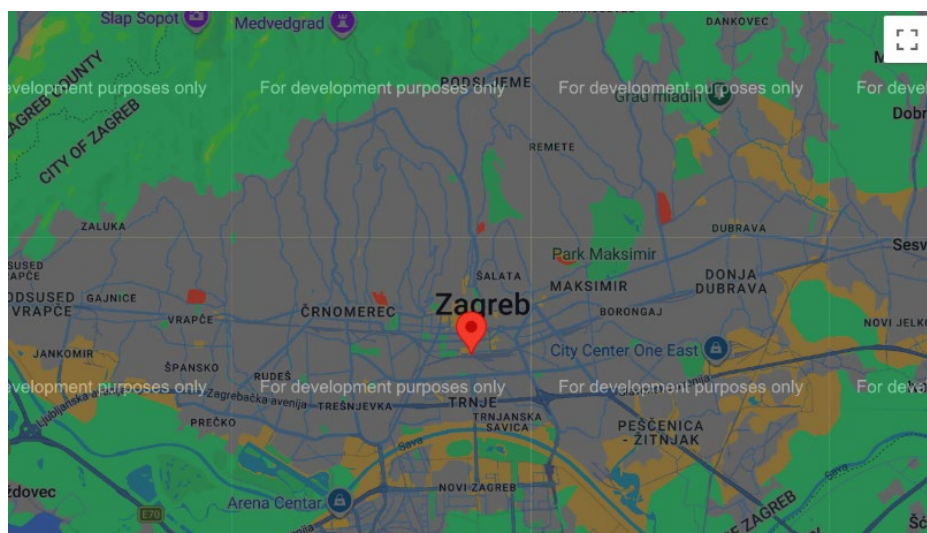

By bus

International and regional buses arrive at Zagreb Bus Station, close to the city center. From there, trams and taxis provide easy access across the city.

By train

Trains arrive at Zagreb Main Railway Station, located centrally and within walking distance of the main square.

The Venue – University of Zagreb Faculty of Agriculture, Department of Chemistry

The event will take place at: University of Zagreb - Faculty of Agriculture

 Svetošimunska cesta 25, 10000 Zagreb

 Pavillon 3, 1st floor – hall 3A with additional halls 3B and 3C

The Faculty is located in the eastern part of Zagreb, near Maksimir Park and easily accessible by tram and bus.

Accommodations

There are many accommodation options in Zagreb. However, you should make a reservation in advance, since Zagreb is a very popular touristic destination.

You can also explore a wide range of accommodation options through popular platforms such as Booking and Airbnb, making it easy to find the perfect place to stay for your trip.

An update will be added beginning of May, when hosts will likely have additional information about potential hotel discounts.
